Air Canada Named One of the Top Five Most Attractive Company Brands to Work For in Canada

MONTREAL, May 11, 2018 /CNW Telbec/ - Air Canada has been named as one of the top five most attractive company brands to work for in Canada, according to the Randstad Employer Brand Research (REBR) independent survey of Canadians to determine which brands they would most like to work for.

"Being named one of the top five most attractive companies to work for in the country is yet another testament to the successful evolution of our culture," says Arielle Meloul-Wechsler, Senior Vice-President, People, Culture and Communications at Air Canada. "This most recent recognition follows Air Canada being named one of Canada's Top 100 Employers for five consecutive years and being named one of Canada's best diversity employers for the third consecutive year. Together, these awards affirm our transformation to becoming a Top 10 Airline in everything we do."

REBR conducts an impartial survey across an extensive demographic. Participants in the REBR survey ranked companies based on 10 key factors including salary and benefits, job security and job content. As there is no company participation, the survey is considered objective.

About Air Canada

Air Canada is Canada's largest domestic and international airline serving more than 220 airports on six continents. Canada's flag carrier is among the 20 largest airlines in the world and in 2017 served more than 48 million customers. Air Canada provides scheduled passenger service directly to 64 airports in Canada, 59 in the United States and 98 in Europe, the Middle East, Africa, Asia, Australia, the Caribbean, Mexico, Central America and South America. Air Canada is a founding member of Star Alliance, the world's most comprehensive air transportation network serving 1,317 airports in 193 countries.
