Ab Delhi Door Nahin! YVR Airport throws a party for Air Canada customers on the inaugural flight from Vancouver to Delhi

Sep 01, 2016

Have a look at our customers' excitement at the inaugural celebration of our first flight to Delhi (DEL) from our YVR trans-Pacific hub.

"We are delighted to inaugurate our second route between Canada and India right in time for Diwali celebrations. Our non-stop flights from our Asia-Pacific Vancouver hub feature 787-9 Dreamliner service and offer the shortest elapsed flying time from Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton, Seattle, Portland and Los Angeles to the Indian subcontinent", said Benjamin Smith, President, Passenger Airlines at Air Canada. "Our non-stop flight, coupled with our streamlined and seamless connections process at YVR translates to a savings of 3-5 hours compared to itineraries with connections in Europe or Asia."

Customers get to enjoy contemporary, inspired Indian dishes by celebrated Vancouver Chef Vikram Vij in all cabins of service on our Canada-India flights, which complements the signature creations by internationally renowned Canadian Chef David Hawksworth in our International Business Class.

Our state-of-the-art aircraft, multi-lingual crews, onboard offerings, in-flight entertainment which includes Bollywood hits and acclaimed multi-lingual art-house films, together with our extensive western Canada domestic and western US transborder network and the seamless connection experience through YVR all position Air Canada and YVR to be the preferred gateway hub for Pacific Northwest travel to and from India.
