

AIR CANADA

News Releases

Travel advisory for flights to/from Mexico City

MONTREAL, April 26 /CNW Telbec/ - Due to an outbreak of Human Swine Influenza in Mexico City, Air Canada is providing the following information for customers with plans to travel to/from the area:

For customers with reservations for travel to/from Mexico City up to April 30th, Air Canada is waiving change fees in order to facilitate changes to travel plans and allow for travel at a later date.

Customers may rebook their travel without penalty, through Air Canada Reservations at 1-888-247-2262; TTY hearing impaired: 1-800-361-8071, or through their travel agent.

Air Canada continues to monitor the situation closely and will provide further travel updates as developments occur. For further information on Swine Influenza, customers are encouraged to consult the Public Health Agency of Canada website at: www.phac-aspc.gc.ca.

For further information:

For further information: Isabelle Arthur (Montréal), (514) 422-5788;
Peter Fitzpatrick (Toronto), (416) 263-5576; Angela Mah (Vancouver), (604) 270-5741; aircanada.com

A STAR ALLIANCE MEMBER

