Winter will be hot with Air Canada and Air Canada Vacations

MONTREAL, Dec. 23 /CNW Telbec/ - Winter will be hot as Air Canada and Air Canada Vacations inaugurate seven new non-stop services this week from Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa and Vancouver to popular holiday sun destinations in the Caribbean and Mexico. These seasonal services will operate until early spring, 2008. Air Canada customers may purchase Air Canada Vacations' all-inclusive holiday packages directly through aircanadavacations.com or by contacting travel agents in Canada.

"With winter's definite arrival here in Canada, we are delighted to be launching new non-stop services bringing the warmth of the Caribbean and Mexican sun, beaches and ocean just a few hours closer to Canadians," said Daniel Shurz, Air Canada's Vice President, Network Planning. "With the flexibility created by our new North American fleet, Air Canada is growing our service to leisure destinations to meet travel demand."

"We are extremely pleased to offer the biggest selection of tropical holiday destinations to Canadians this winter and to establish a presence in new areas like Cayo Santa Maria. It's all about more choice, greater flexibility coupled with the quality and reliability Air Canada Vacations is known for," said Zeina Gedeon, President and CEO. "Our goal is to offer packages everywhere Air Canada flies from more cities nationwide. These seven launches are a significant step in that direction."
