Air Canada Vacations Introduces New Sun Collection

MONTREAL, July 24, 2018 /CNW Telbec/ - Air Canada Vacations announced today the launch of its 2018/2019 Sun Collection. Inspiring you to soak in the sun, sea and sand in Mexico, the Caribbean, Hawaii, California, Florida and Las Vegas, the Collection is Making Your Dreams Travel™, one trip at a time.

The new Sun Collection boasts over 700 hotels, most of them offering all-inclusive packages. It also includes 13 resorts exclusive to Air Canada Vacations, 35 semi-exclusive resorts and more than 100 cruises. Featuring options for short and long stays, additional guided excursions, and new destinations of St. Vincent and the Grenadines and Belize, it offers tailored vacation packages to customers, no matter their travel style.

"At Air Canada Vacations, we're always looking to enhance our Sun Collection, year after year, so we can continue to offer our customers more choice and convenience. With our exclusive advantages, huge hotel repertoire, and flights aboard Air Canada and Air Canada Rouge, it's easy to turn travel dreams into reality," said Nino Montagnese, Managing Director at Air Canada Vacations.

Air Canada Vacations' unique program collections; Spotlight, Luxe, Family, Boutique, Adults Only and Spa allow customers to pick their resort based on their vacation style. The exclusive Spotlight Collection offers a variety of special perks which may include more à la carte dinners, free room service, early check-in and late check-out, dedicated room location, resort credits and many more.

Air Canada Vacations also offers the CareFlex plan – your passport to peace of mind. When purchased at the time of booking, the CareFlex plan allows travellers to change, transfer their package or even cancel their booking with a refund before their departure date.

All packages come with round-trip flights aboard Air Canada and Air Canada Rouge, departing from 64 Canadian cities as well as hotel accommodations, and include options for guided tours, activities and car rentals. Travellers can now book on aircanadavacations.com or through their travel agents.
