Air Canada Cargo Expands Freighter Network to Europe and Atlantic Canada

MONTREAL, March 30, 2022 – Air Canada Cargo today announced that it will expand its freighter network, including the start of service to Halifax starting April 19. In addition, the entry into service of the second Boeing 767-300ER freighter will allow Air Canada Cargo to add freighter service to Frankfurt, Cologne, Istanbul, Madrid and St. John's, starting in May.

“The entry into service of our second freighter is yet another exciting milestone in the growth of our freighter network and provides more options and services to the cargo community” says Matthieu Casey, Managing Director, Commercial – Cargo.

These new routes complement Air Canada Cargo's regular freighter service to Latin American cities.

Atlantic Canada Schedule from Toronto

- To Halifax: Five flights per week starting April 19
- To St. John's: Six flights per week starting May 1

European Schedule from Toronto Starting in May

- To Frankfurt: Two flights per week
- To Cologne: One flight per week
- To Istanbul: One flight per week
- To Madrid: Three flights per week
