Air Canada comments on CALDA ratification vote

MONTREAL, Sept. 6, 2011 /CNW Telbec/ - Air Canada has been advised by the Canadian Airline Dispatchers Association (CALDA), representing the airline's 74 flight dispatchers that the tentative agreement reached by the Company and the CALDA Negotiating Committee on August 19, 2011 was not ratified by the union membership. CALDA's collective agreement expired on March 31, 2011. Air Canada confirms it is business as usual for the airline.

Air Canada is Canada's largest domestic and international full-service airline providing scheduled and charter air transportation for passengers and cargo to more than 175 destinations on five continents. Canada's flag carrier is the 15th largest commercial airline in the world and serves 33 million customers annually. Air Canada is a founding member of Star Alliance.
